THE correspondence between the Chairman of the Foochow Chamber of Commerce and the British Consul at that port with reference tion in the river Min, published in our columns yesterday, shows that the Foochow residents Pagoda Island. So long ago as the 26th promptly opened to trade, but it would seem either that the provincial officials preferred to take their own time in removing the impediments in the Min river or that the tardiness of the French in evacuating the Pescadores induced the Chinese Government to suspend execution of the first in structions. It can well be imagined that the sturdy old veteran Tso Tsung-Tand would unhestatingly disregard the orders from Peking if in his opinion the action of the French gave ground for the suspicion that of the agreement. Anyhow, it appears certain that the French remained at the Pescadores so long after the date fixed for them to retire that orders were given by the Chinese to stop the work of removing the obstruction in the river Yang at Chinhai which had been commenced, and the re-opening to navigation of the Min was probably deferred for the same reason. In charity we effect of making the Kwangtung Authorities retain the barriers in the Canton river. The great loss through the blocking of the Chuking. As mex impleof this loss we may mention that the Hongkong, Canton, and Macan Steamboat Company have had to pay some closed, to say nothing of other expenses. ocean steamers through not being able the steamers have new to wait to keep their time of arrival or departure. In the case of the navigation of the inconvenience are both caused, at Foochow danger has to be added, the anchorage at risk from torpedoes, which may get loose, is considerable.

We sincerely hope that by this date, the evacuation of the Pescadores having been accomplished, the Fukien Authorities have set about the work of clearing the Min of the torpedoes and obstacles to navigation, and that so further delay will take place in rendering the Canton river free from ob. structions. There can be no excuse for further delay now the Pescadores are va cated, and it will be the duty of the Foreign Representatives to urge compliance with the Tsung-li Yamen's telegraphed instructions unless these are promptly carried into effect. The replies of the British Consul at Foochow to the representations of the Chairman of the Chamber of Commerce at that port seem to us to savour of a desire to make light of he matter and to justify the permanent mention of the Sharp Peak anchorage. Mr. SINCLAIR has resided so many years in China that, like some other Consular officials, he seen s to view questions affeeting British trade from somewhat of a Chinese point of view. Nor is the intimation made to the Consul by the Viceroy that, on the total evacuation of the Pescidores by the French, he will, in and China. conjunction with the High Imperial Commissioner and the Tartar Commander-in-Chief. apply for instructions to the Tsung-li Yamen, at all satisfactory or reassuring. If it be true that that Board has already transmitted instructions through the telegraphic wire to the different authorities to clear obstructions at all ports, what occasion is there for the Fukien Authorities to ask for a repetition of the order? Either such instruc- over.

tions have not yet been received at Foochow or the officials there are seeking pretexts for fresh delay. The Chinese Authorities can have no object in retaining the barriers at the different ports when danger of invasion has distinctly passed, and, to do them justice, the Central Government have shown no disposition to defer their removal, But processtination is a vice common to many Chinese officials-who take no note of and attach ho value to time-and the delay is probably due to the provincial authorities. If the foreign Consuls at Foodhow and Canton plainly represent to the mandarins the loss and annoyance which every day's neglect to remove these obstructions causes to merchants and shipowners they may be persuaded to hurry on the operations for clearing the rivers. Unfortunately this is hardly the kind of communication to be expected from gentlemen like Mr. SINCLAIR, who appears to consider any demand or representation by foreign merchants as a sign of impatience or unreasonableness.

"THE PRIVATE SECRETARY" AS

THE THEATRE ROYAL.

On Thursday evening at the City Hall Theatre the Willard Company, after a long interval, made another appearance before a Hongkong audience. The piece selected for representation was Hawtrey's farcical comedy "The Private Secretary." and, with the assistance of several gentlemen amateurs, Mr. Willard was enabled to place it on the stage in a most creditable manner. There was a very good house notwithstanding the heat and rain, which fell more or less all the night.

The comedy is of the lightest, and depends for its success entirely upon the comical situations and the extravagant absurdities with which it and accounts for the past half-year having abounds. Of literary merit it is wholly destitute, been in your hands for some time, with and is altogether a most flimsy production. His Worship summed up to the jury, and he put it to them to consider what was the cause of death, and then if it was due to the set of the prisoner. If they were satisfied that it was due to a blow given by the prisoner with a knife they would have to consider what was the nature of fenses, and inflicted the wound-even if they thought he had not intended to kill the deceased himself had he chosen to do so, they would return a verdict of wilful murder. If, however, they thought it was a spontaneous act arising out of the fight, and without any premeditation whatever, they would find in that case a verdict of manslaughter. The difference between the two rested entirely upon the fact of whether the jury considered the act was premeditated. .The_slightest_degree of premeditation_turned the crime from manslaughter to murder: it was a matter of degree upon which the jury were to judge. A special proclamation, dated the 25th inst., has been issued by the Viceroy of the Two June, and he sent out invitations to his friends. Kwang and the Governor of Kwangtung seton the 18th to be present at his house at the ting forth that an Imperial rescript having been received aunouncing the restoration of good relations between China and France, the buildings Barracks. He had known the prisoner two or formerly occupied by French Consuls and subthree years. Some time previous to the 20th jects must now be surrendered to them. The people are further informed that now peace has been proclaimed between China and France, when French citizens return to reside in the country they must be treated exactly the same as other foreigners and neither insulted nor molested. Any Chinese who are found creating trouble or offering any interference with French residents will be arrested and rigorously dealt

I hope that this necessary and very sensible proclamation will have its due effect, and prevent any demonstration against the French on their return. It is most needed on behalf of the French missionaries, who labour in the interior, and are more likely to be molested than residents in Shameen. The new Provincial Treasurer took over the seals of office on Tuesday, and the new Provincial judge took his seat the day before.

Some of the gentry belonging to the Sze Woi, Sam Shuey, and the Tsing Yuen districts have arrived here and presented a petition to the authorities praying them to send some soldiers to the above districts to assist in the repair of the river embankments broken by the recent floods. The application has been granted. On the 8th proxime, the birthday of the Emperor Kwang Su, the high authorities will repair to the Nam Sam Temple to celebrate the usual coremonies. . Court dress will be worn for

POST-OFFICE NOTICES

Attention is invited to the following particulars on the subject of Local Delivery LOCAL DELEVERY. - No delivery is attempted on board Ship, at the Peak, Kowloon, Aberdeen, &c., nor at any private house (even though named in the address) when there is a place of business nearer, at which delivery can be effected (Postal Guido, par. 159).

The above Regulation is not new, but has been the invariable rule of the Post Office for many years. Considerable efforts have been made to secure its being generally understood. PACIFIC MAIL STEAMSHIP COMPANY. To prevent, however, if possible, any further disappointment in the matter, it will appear permanently on the Mail Lists issued twice every day from the Daily Press Office.

The Postal Guide for 1835, revised to date THE U. S. Mail Steamer "CITY OF will be found in the Daily Press Dicectory. p. 393 large edition, p. 657 small edition. This is the only authorized complete Summary of Postal information published in Hougkoug.

When Correspondence has been mis-sent or delayed (both of which are liable to happen occasionally) all that the addresses need do is to note on the cover. Sent to ---- or Received at 7 p.m., or as the case may be, and forward it, without any other writing whatever, to the Postmaster-General. This should be seted on the first time cause of complaint occurs; it is a nistike to let such matters pass for fear of Through Passage Tickets granted to England, giving trouble, a course which generally gives France, and Germany by all trans-Atlantic lines more trouble in the end.
